

MILLIONS DAMAGE BY FLOOD

OMAHA, Neb., July 8.—Three Alkermans are in an automobile whizzed into Omaha today from California. They left Death Valley just thirty days ago. They are on their way to Boston. The men are George G. Reed, George K. Shuler and Harry W. Brown. According to their story they are—

Boston men who began life in the West as prospectors and operators of a mobile transportation line in Death Valley. There they fell in with prospectors and located a claim in the Funeral range, which they intend to work after a brief visit to Boston.

Their touring car is named "The Desert Rat." It is of their own construction, made of steel and aluminum. In Southern Nevada they lost their way in the desert and were forced to conserve their small supply of water to keep the engines going. They were stranded for two days, being compelled to bridge over swollen mountain streams.

LATEST NEWS FROM ALAMEDA AND BERKELEY

REV. WILKINS PUTS BAN ON STANIS FIRM BILL BOARDS

Presbyterian Divine Ignores the Threat of "There is Trouble Ahead for You."

BERKELEY, July 3.—Dr. H. G. Wilkins, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, whose office was hung on the church door last week, made known today the nature of the placard which he found pinned thereon. The liquor interests of West Berkeley have disliked Rev. Mr. Wilkins since the minister inspired the police and the town trustees to activity against the saloons. This is the message which the liquorists' sympathizers left for the Presbyterian clergyman's edification: "This represents G. H. Wilkins, the man who interferes in other people's affairs and a trouble maker. We will not tolerate your blackmailing any longer in our midst. If you do there is trouble ahead for you."

"PEACE ASSOCIATION" Dr. Wilkins says that he does not propose to pursue the effigy subject further and he ignores the threats contained in the placard. "Where I came from," said Dr. Wilkins today, "such an incident would be looked upon as a trifle, for men in that country thought a week was hardly complete unless a man had been killed. The effigy business is only intended to cause a stir. It indicates that somebody regards me as a worth while sufficiently to threaten me."

ALAMEDA, July 3.—Mortimer Bacon, the strike-breaker, who was dangerously, if not fatally injured in San Francisco yesterday in a car collision, is a well-known Alamedan. Bacon was working as a motorman when the accident happened. When the collision occurred he was caught between his own car and the car with which he collided. He was immediately taken to the St. Francis Hospital, where physicians found that the man's ribs had been broken and driven into his lungs. His family in this city on Benton street were communicated with and quick relief was sent. The family is now at the hospital. Bacon was formerly employed as a collector in Alameda.

BERKELEYANS WANT TOWER TO SURMOUNT TOWN HALL

Plans Submitted by Different Architects Are Splendid—French Renaissance Is Favored Style.

BERKELEY, July 3.—Eleven plans for the new town hall were put on exhibition this morning in the council chamber. The one submitted by Bakewell & Brown, the San Francisco architects, and the one that has been practically accepted by the committee, is placed in the center of the exhibit. The one the committee favors does not have a tower, but there are several of the trustees who want the tower retained.

The building is of French renaissance style of architecture, and will be built of reinforced concrete or steel frame. It is a two-story structure, with a main building and two wings. Underneath the main building is a basement, that will be splendidly lighted and have excellent ventilation. There is also an attic, over the main building, that can be used later if required.

PILLARS AND STATUES.

Leading to the entrance of the building on the front, or Grove street side, will be a stone walk, up to steps, of which there are ten, ending on a porch. On each side of the steps will be balustrades, and at the bottom a pillar supporting statues. Rising from the porch to the top of the building and supporting exterior work of the roof will be six immense columns of concrete, polished and resembling stone. Thence leading into the building will be a wide corridor, reached through two magnificent doors.

Both wings have two big windows, both on first and second stories, and these are trimmed in porch effect on the outside.

The roof is flat, unless it is decided to retain the tower, with that of the wings pointed.

The basement is given over to the police, fire and electrical departments, and provides for offices for marshal, chief of fire department, emergency hospital battery room, ventilation and heating room, fuel room and storage battery room, booking office for the police, also a kitchen and pantry for the police, and a room for the police.

On the second floor will be the council chamber, which extends from the south wall of the main building to the south wall. This takes in the entire frontage of that part of the building.

In the south wing rooms will be the private chambers of the police judge, adjoining this the office of the clerk of the court, and then comes the court room. In the north wing will be offices of the town attorney, town clerk and superintendent of schools.

MAY MAKE CHANGES. While the plans of Bakewell & Brown have been virtually accepted there are certain changes that may be required, and unless the firm can do these and inside the appropriation of $100,000, another plan can be accepted.

It is not probable, however, that plans will be changed. The plan will make the town hall attractive and one of the finest in this part of the country.

The plans submitted by the other architects are fine, and almost any one of them if accepted would be pleasing to the Berkeleyans, but the present selection has met with approval wherever seen.

INGOMAR AT GREEK THEATER

With the single exception of Phedre, played by Madame Bernhardt in the Greek Theater last year, there has been no play presented so well adapted to the natural surroundings of this out-door theater, and a splendid program is assured.

The fact that the Emeryville race track police have been thrown in many crooks on the public and the police say these are robbing right and left in order to secure sufficient funds to enable them to travel to other cities where racing is now in progress.

Sargent, 1000 Atherton street, reported this morning that she found a burglar in the hall of her home last night about 11:45 o'clock, and the fellow ran away when he found he was discovered. LAD TREMBLES TESTIFIES IN ORCHARD CASE

P. L. McCreamy, Expert Chemist, Returns From Scene of Orchard Trial in Idaho.

BERKELEY, July 3.—P. L. McCreamy, who was graduated from the University in 1904, and has since been practicing as an expert chemist, has just returned from Boise, Idaho, where he gave to the prosecution in the Haywood case some testimony that forms a valuable link of confirmation in the story that Harry Orchard told.

McCreamy is now in the department of fertilizer control in the College of Agriculture. In 1904, however, he was Assistant City Chemist of San Francisco and as such analyzed the poisoned milk which was left at the door of Frederick W. Bradley, whom Orchard confessed he tried to kill, once by this poison and another time by dynamite.

Orchard's confession in regard to the poisoned milk was one of the most striking points in his testimony. The milk was left at the house two days before the explosion. Orchard said that he found it at the back door of the milkman had left it and put in some strychnine from a bottle. Bradley put some of the milk on his cereal at breakfast and at once noticed that it was very bitter. He did not swallow enough to hurt him. The milkman was at once summoned, and he took the milk to the City Chemist's office. There McCreamy found it contained enough poison to kill 20 or 30 men and that, in fact, its very purpose had been defeated by the quantity. The matter was kept very quiet, and nothing concerning it became public until Orchard made his confession. This fact was very much regarded by the prosecution as pretty good evidence that Orchard was telling the truth.

McCreamy's testimony was of course almost purely technical and of such nature that no cross-examination was called for. He remained in Boise, however, for several days, so great was his interest in the trial. He was particularly impressed with the intelligent appearance of the Haywood jury.

PROPRIETORS IN BOLD DEFINITION

Official Reports Testify to Oakland's Growth.

At the opening of the new fiscal year the official reports are beginning to contribute their testimony to the marvelous growth of Oakland during the past twelve months. These reports collaterally confirm the record of the new city directory, which shows that the permanent population is approximately 225,000. The records of the police department show that during the past fiscal year there were double the number of arrests than in the fiscal year 1905-6 and more than double the amount of money paid into the city treasury in the way of fines. The growth of crime in any community naturally correlates proportionately with the increase of its population. It is plain, therefore, that the population of Oakland has doubled during the fiscal year just closed as compared with the preceding fiscal year.

Land values have of course been immensely affected by the growth of population. There is undoubtedly a surprise in store for many people in the revelation which the coming assessment rolls will make of the growth of values. These rolls are now being footed up, and, while it is premature to assume what the footings will show, there is much speculation regarding them among those who are interested in realty. The guesses of the increase in the assessed valuation of real property in Alameda county among this class of citizens range from $40,000,000 to $75,000,000. If the latter figures are shown, it will be a larger increase than that which has occurred during the year in Los Angeles county, where the assessed valuations of property are said to be nearly $67,000,000 in excess of those of the previous fiscal year. The bulk of the increase in values in Alameda county will naturally be charged to the three cities on the bay shore, each of which has gained so greatly in population and been the scene of so much building activity during the past fiscal year.

A New York paper's anxiety for the Democrats to nominate a Southern man for President indicates a belief that a Republican of the "safe and sane" variety will be nominated instead of big Bill Taft. In that case "the interests" could not lose.

Mount Diablo Wagon Road.

Some interest is being taken in the project for building a wagon road to the summit of Mount Diablo. An effort was made at the last meeting of the County Board of Supervisors to get that body interested in the enterprise on the ground that it would be a valuable auxiliary to the tourist hotels which are being erected in Alameda county and serve as an additional attraction to sojourners here from abroad.

It was very clearly shown, however, by Chairman Mitchell that the Supervisors of Alameda county could not contribute any money or share in any way in the expense of constructing a wagon road lying wholly within another county. The Supervisors could, therefore, do nothing beyond courteously listen to the explanation of the project, its cost and the many benefits to be derived from it speculatively.

Doubtless a wagon road to the summit of Mt. Diablo would be quite a desirable attraction to sightseers from abroad, on which class the tourist hotels erected in the county will largely depend for patronage. But if one is ever built there, it will probably have to rely upon private enterprise. The top of Mount Diablo passed into private ownership many years ago, and it would probably be more profitable for the present owners of the property to erect a hotel on the summit, as was at one time projected, and construct the road too at their own expense than for Contra Costa county or the disinterested citizens of other counties to embark in an enterprise which, if carried out, promises chiefly to be of private benefit only.

It may be easier for a camel to get through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven, but John D. Rockefeller is furnishing an object lesson to the United States marshals of several Eastern States that it is the easiest kind of a matter for a rich man to dodge any process server in their employ.

Vice-President Fairbanks' "marked copy" campaign is still flooding the mails, but it appears to be making poor headway with the people. The average Indiana paper is not inspiring in appearance, and editorially is as depressing as Mr. Fairbanks' presence at a social gathering.

Crosby S. Noyes, editor of the Washington Star, says the newspapers made President Roosevelt, but he says it in a tone indicating a belief that they turned out a poor job. Mr. Noyes apparently hankers after initiation in the President's Ananias Club.

THE DISTURBER

WIVES FORGIVE
ERRING DIVINES

Girls Who Eloped With Ministers Were Compelled to Support Them.

PHILADELPHIA, July 3.—Forgiven by the wives they deserted, and with the young women whose lives they blighted earning their own living in department stores, the Rev. Oscar W. Fisher of Bridgeton, N. J., and the Rev. M. De Witt Carpenter of Harrington, Del., have both returned to the firesides they left.

Both men have been received with open arms by their wives. There is a chance that the Rev. De Witt Carpenter may again take his pulpit. The Rev. Mr. Fisher, however, will return from Bridgeton to Philadelphia and make this his future home.

Pretty Christina Scheffing, the choir singer at St. John's Lutheran church of Bridgeton, who was the partner of the Rev. Mr. Fisher, will also remain in Philadelphia. She has obtained a position as a saleswoman, and until the clergyman decided he had wronged his family by deserting them, she aided in providing the money that was necessary to pay his board in this city.

Della Goodrich, the seventeen-year-old assistant in the Delaware church, to whom the pastor wrote his burning letter, which he mailed by mistake to the Recorder of Deeds, is in a department store near Pittsburgh.

PREACHED IN MISSIONS.

In his absence from Harrington the Rev. Mr. Carpenter says he preached some in missions, and tried his hand at paperhanging to get his living. Both ministers are happy. They both feel deeply for the young girls but, under the circumstances, believed it was sinful for them to continue as they were, and there was nothing to do but repent and return home.

While arranging to return to his family and have his wife forgive him, the Rev. Mr. Fisher permitted Miss Scheffing to provide the food for the pair. It is believed that the failure of the pair to subsist on their united earnings had as much as remorse to do with the repentant attitude of the clergyman.

The Rev. Mr. Fisher made a flying trip to Bridgeton, saw his wife, and, avoiding his old friends, hurried back here, taking up his residence in a little hotel in Market street. "I transgressed," said he tonight. "At first the lure of our love held me tightly. Then I saw what we had done and life became a misery. I have not seen Miss Scheffing for weeks. Our affection was an overwhelming one, but it was only platonic."

The Rev. M. De Witt Carpenter said: "Miss Goodrich and I thought we dearly loved each other. But we were victims of Satan. I believed it was sin, and she believed it was sin. I shall make public confession and do penance."

THE KING OF SWEDEN.

"King Oscar of Sweden is one of the finest old gentlemen in the world and is thoroughly democratic in his way," said Victor E. Nelson, who was in San Francisco, Paris and Stockholm. Mr. Nelson is a native of Sweden, says the Washington Post, but came to America many years ago and became an American citizen. During the McKinley administration he was appointed Consul at Bergen, Norway, and held that position five years. Since that time he has attended to business interests on the continent and here in the United States.

"When I was a lad about 18 years of age," he continued, "I was appointed a member of the bodyguard of a king. As I was then, as now, more than six feet in height, I became pleasantly acquainted with the king. He was a pleasant acquaintance with the King, and since that time have seen him very often. He walks out in the city of Stockholm quite alone. No guards or police, in uniform or service, accompany him. The people, who love him, recognize him, and doff their hats, and he is quite familiar with them. The treatment of him by the people of Norway is having its effect through a general boycott of the Norwegian merchants by the Swedish people. For a long time the Norwegian merchants had been shipping mackerel, purchased from the Swedish fishermen, to the United States. Recently I organized a company and went across the border, and I am now lecturing to them and urging them to sell their fish to the Swedish fishermen."

POLICE LINES ARE CHANGED

San Francisco Commissioners Organize New District and Increased Force.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—The Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon, President Hagerty being absent, and organized the new police district by appointing James Kelly as captain and Patrick Shea and William E. Dinan as lieutenants. Lieutenant Dinan, who is a brother of the Chief of Police, will remain as property clerk and a sergeant will be detailed as acting lieutenant to fill his place. There is a difference in salary of $50 a month.

Captain Kelly joined the force May 2, 1886, and was appointed sergeant October 1, 1889. He was reduced to the ranks owing to a fight with another sergeant in Chinatown on September 22, 1890, but was reinstated as sergeant in 1900 and was made a lieutenant June 4, 1902. Lieutenant Shea joined the force April 26, 1883, and was appointed sergeant February 21, 1894. Lieutenant Dinan joined the department August 20, 1891, was made a corporal August 2, 1902, and sergeant last year. He has occupied the position of property clerk since 1902.

OLD LIST EXHAUSTED.

Ten new police names were also appointed, which exhausts the old eligible list. As soon as the new list is ready in a few days the other forty will be appointed. This will make the fifty extra policemen provided for in the budget, increasing the force to 749 men. The names of the ten are Thos. F. Maher, Andrew J. Rindlinger, Thos. E. Gorman, Melville E. F. Stevens, Thomas Doyle, Thomas F. Bell, Thos. W. Malone, Robert M. Maiburg, Thos. J. Stanton and John P. Hanrahan.

There has been a slight alteration in the boundaries of the new district. It was originally intended to run from Jackson street north to the bay and from Jones street west to the Presidio. Now it has been fixed from Broadway to the bay and from Larkin street west to Lyon. The station will be at 3118 Fillmore street. Sergeants and corporals for the new district have not yet been detailed, as it will take a few days to get things in ship shape order. The charges preferred by Chief Dinan against Captain Mooney were dismissed without prejudice, the chief intimating his intention to prefer new charges.

An application of S. Ito, a Japanese living at 313 Austin avenue, for a second hand dealer's license was denied as he was not a citizen of the United States.

The meeting of the board sitting as pension commissioners was postponed until Friday, owing to the absence of Hagerty.

A BRIDGE "HORROR."

The usual large crowd was gathered at the New York end of the Brooklyn Bridge waiting for trolley cars. An elderly woman, red in the face, flushed and fussy, dug her elbows into convenient ribs irrespective of the recipient of particularly vicious jab. She yelled at him, "Say!" He winced slightly and moved to one side. She, too, side-stepped, and thumped him vigorously on the back. "Say!" she persisted, "does it make any difference which of these cars I take to Greenwood Cemetery?" "Not to me, madam," he answered, slipping through an opening in the crowd.—The Bellman.

DREW'S NEW PLAY.

John Drew's new play, "His Wife," in which he will first be seen at the Empire theater in New York in the early autumn, is in four acts. The part of the play is that of the guardian of a sympathetic young girl in whose behalf he gets into all sorts of humorous and serious complications. He is endeavoring all the while to find for her a man she can love, which man he finds at the end of the play in the guardian himself.

A WRONG DIAGNOSIS.

A Washington physician was recently walking on Connecticut avenue with his five-year-old son, when they were obliged to stop at a side street to await the passing of a trolley car. The youngster had never seen anything of the kind. His eyes widened. Pointing to his father, he asked, "Dad, what's that?" "That," said the physician, "is a wrong diagnosis."

THE DREAMER.

I dreamed a dream of wealth. What I have I gained. Some chaff and a modest salary. Such few small comforts as might be attained. By any one whose limbs and mind are free. I smile, sometimes to think that they were not. Much stiffer—my dreams and what I got.—Chevrolet Leader.

John Sharp Williams once ran afoul of Tom Reed. This is the way he tells the story himself: "I met Mr. Reed coming out of the cloakroom and he said to me in that peculiar drawl of his: 'Williams, whatever makes you such a bitter partisan?' 'Well, Mr. Speaker, that's pretty good coming from you, isn't it?' I replied. 'Never mind me,' he replied. 'But why are you such a bitter partisan?' 'Well, I'll tell you,' I said. One of the justices of the supreme court tells of a young lawyer in the West who was trying his first case before Justice Harlan. The youthful attorney had evidently conned his argument till he knew it by heart. Before he proceeded ten minutes with his oratorical effort the justice had decided the case in his favor and had told him so. Despite this, the young lawyer would not cease. It seemed that he had attained such a momentum that he could not stop. GRAY-HAIRED WOMAN TO COMPETE IN TEN-MILE SWIM

Past Middle Age but Lately Develops Into Powerful and Clever Athlete In Aquatic Circles.

ST. LOUIS, July 3.—With powerful strokes a woman whose hair was streaked with gray and who was apparently past middle age, swam swiftly up the Meramec river yesterday, landing on a float five miles from where she entered the water. She was swimming easily at the end of the long journey and as she was dragged dripping from the river Professor Muegge of the Muegge Natatorium grasped her by the hand, saying:

"Well done; you can surely go ten miles the next time."

The swimmer was Mrs. Lina Brandenburger, who at the age of fifty-seven years has developed into one of the most expert swimmers of the West. She is training for the ten-mile Marathon swim that is to be given by the Missouri Athletic Club in the Mississippi river on October 2 next. Many of the fastest men swimmers of the country will be pitted against her.

Mrs. Brandenburger learned to swim five years ago, and her wonderful mastery of the sport is the sensation of athletic circles here. It seems no effort at all for the woman to glide through the water, and her only requirement now is some hard training to give her strength enough to finish out the ten-mile course. Professor Muegge is training her.

"Several years ago I suffered a serious heat prostration and for the years following I was compelled to leave St. Louis every summer during the hot weather," said Mrs. Brandenburger. "Five years ago my physician told me I could remain in town if I would go in swimming every day to keep my blood cool."

"I was somewhat shocked at the suggestion for it seemed absurd for a woman of fifty-two years to begin swimming. Now I think the sport is the grandest in the world. I feel years younger and my health has been restored to me. The exercise and interest in the sport keep me well and healthy. I think I have a good chance of winning the long race. All women should swim."

The Missouri Athletic Club will give $40,000 in prizes to the swimmers.

THE GIRLS MEN MARRY.

It is rather a difficult thing to determine right away the type of woman who always gets married. We all have different opinions, and most types seem to have their chances.

An old opinion reads: "The type of woman who generally gets married is she who has an antipathy to loam and lobster salad, who dislikes theaters and concerts, and whose favorite occupation is mending her husband's things and cooking his dinners."

The woman who eschews every, or nearly every, little pleasure in life is apt to be deadly dull, and, taken on the average, is not the type that men run after and pester with offers of marriage.

These deadly dull ones make, as a rule, good wives and most excellent housekeepers; but, unless a man is an old bachelor, who merely requires someone to see his clothes are well aired and mended, and his dinners well cooked, he wants a little more than those very sensible and practical qualities.

The type of woman who always seems to get married is she of the clinging, trusting, looking-up-to kind. She may be a poor cook, and her husband's clothes may go begging for all the stitches she will put in them, but, in nine cases out of ten, she will marry, and in nine cases out of ten, she will get a good husband.

What is her particular charm? If one asked a man to describe it, in all probability he couldn't.

The strong-minded woman, now called the new woman, is not of the type men love. He may respect and even fear her, but he will never love her as he loves the woman who looks up to him and who owns that he is master.

Therefore, girls, you who want to get married and to have homes of your own, do not appear to be strong-minded, even if you are. After marriage you can afford to surprise your husband—let us hope pleasantly. Men like a woman to have a few ideas of her own, but she mustn't be too clever. That is fatal.

AMERICAN GRACE DARLING HAS LIFE SAVER RECORD

Miss Ida Lewis, Keeper of Limerock Light, Celebrates Golden Anniversary at Her Historical Residence.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Miss Ida Lewis, the Grace Darling of America, as she is known, who has lived for fifty years at Limerock lighthouse, off Newport, R. I., says a dispatch, celebrated her golden anniversary as a resident of the historic spot Monday.

For twenty-eight years Miss Lewis has been the keeper of the beacon, succeeding her father through a special act of Congress when he became disabled.

Miss Lewis was 68 years of age in March last, but she is still alert in body and mind. Practically all of Newport took part in the celebration, for people there are proud of the brave woman who has to her credit the saving of eighteen lives from the sea. Not a few of these rescues were made under circumstances that called for both daring and clever seamanship and as a result of her courage and skill, under conditions that would have tried the strongest heart, her fame became world-wide.

Craft of every description, laden with admirers, made their way out to the light where Miss Lewis kept open house, cheerfully receiving and entertaining her visitors. Those who had not seen her for years were astonished at her mental and physical vigor, and it was predicted that the light would not soon lose its famous keeper.

In the interior of the house, which is wonderfully neat, are many medals and trophies. Limerock lighthouse has had many distinguished visitors, including General U. S. Grant, Vice-President Coit, Admiral Dewey and General Sherman.

GIRL DODGES SPANKING; ELOPES AND IS MARRIED

Bride Declares "Old Man" Tried to Punish Her for "Keeping Company" But Failed.

COATESVILLE, Pa., July 3.—Never mentioned matrimony to my parents. Father was opposed to my "keeping company." He told me that he was going to "jack it up," meaning that I should not go with Mr. Jones—never. He tried to spank me, but did not succeed. This was the cause of my elopement.

"Mother received me very nicely, and I learned from her that the 'old man' is pretty angry, and he says he is done with me. I don't care, though; I am happy now."

HEBE GIVES JUNO POINTS AS TO CHARMS OF MANNERS

Big Women Suffer From Self-Consciousness and Awkwardly Dispose Their Big Hands and Big Feet.

"The big woman has much to learn from the little one in the matter of repose and charm of manner," says a Juno, who admits that she has studied little women to her own advantage.

"Little women," the New York Sun quotes her as explaining, "are mistresses of themselves; and that is just what so many big women are not—their height makes them self-conscious and this self-consciousness makes them the losers in grace of carriage, gesture and expression. Little hands are never afraid to gesticulate freely; little feet never draw back hastily under the skirt as if ashamed of themselves. It is much easier to enter a room prettily and without self-consciousness if one is to be looked down upon instead of up to."

"Something is expected of people who have to be looked up to, and great is the disappointment given by a tall woman if she does not satisfy this requirement. With little people grace is taken for granted. With big ones it is a quality to be speculated upon."

"Awkwardness among big women is so usual a sight that grace renders a big woman far more charming to watch than she would be were all her big sisters graceful. One sees many more instances of graceful big women than one used to, for never before has the big woman been so to the vogue. It is a Juno era—the present one in fashions. The little woman is just as much a queen as ever; but she is not the only queen. She has a rival who unobtrusively asks for a seven glove or a six and a half shoe."

WOMEN ARE KITTENISH.

"Some big women seem instinctively to know how to be graceful, but most have to learn how to be, whether they admit it or not. Some one has said that the soul of every woman is kittenish. A kittenish soul finds it easy to express itself in a small physique. Six feet of height does not lend itself well to kittenish behavior. How to express one's nature without being undignified is the problem of the big woman—a problem that does not confront the little woman."

"Most big women in their solution become stiff. They think that the grotesque is their only role. This is a great mistake. Big women should express as much vivacity as little ones, just as much pliancy. They can do it if they will only feel that they have a perfect right to, and have the courage to use pretty, spirited gestures."

"The average big woman lets a pretty gesture fall of completion, because she knows her hand is big. She doesn't toss her head because she's so tall. She sits awkwardly so as to hide her feet."

"I did all these things till a little friend of mine said to me 'If I were as self-conscious as you are I should be perfectly miserable.' You'd be just as bad yourself if you were big," I retorted.

BIG ONES SELF CONSCIOUS.
"You should dare to do just what I do naturally," she said, undaunted. "I lay my hand down on the table and leave it there. It is pretty and little and I know other people must think so as well as I. You put your hand down on the table and almost instantly your fingers curl under to make it smaller and in a second or two you slip it sheepishly into your lap. Now, put your hand down on the table. There, now you are to keep it there three minutes by my watch, and I'm going to look at it all the time."

"I did as she said and suffered my usual self-consciousness. 'Now, I want to tell you something,' she said. 'You have not a pretty hand. Many big hands are beautiful. Yours are not, but you could make them attractive if you would make them act as though they thought that they were pretty. You keep them awfully red by grinding them together in your effort to hide them. Don't curl your fingers up. Let them go easily, just as though they were the most exquisite little fingers in the world. Absolute self-composure in a homely hand will fool most people into thinking the hand a pretty one. There's a very beautiful young actress who has very big hands and feet. When she first acted you were conscious all the time of her effort to hide her hands. Now her hands have dignity. They are just as big, but they are beautiful, because they are used so gracefully and so intelligently."

TAUGHT HER FEET PRIDE.
"Now, put out your feet the way mine are, showing a little of the stocking. Mine are dainty, so when I see some one looking at them I don't draw them in. Yours are big, so you do. So did this young actress I referred to—at first. But just as soon as she woke up to the fact she was making her large extremities a dozen times larger and homelier by letting them act so sheepishly she didn't care whether anyone looked at her feet or not. She shed them as well as she could, wore the latest thing in shoes and slippers and taught her feet to have some pride. They're just as big now, but one never thinks of them as a blemish."

"You've a beautiful head and figure and a superb height. You ruin yourself by self-consciousness. You've got to learn to accept watching. A big woman is always conspicuous. People watch her. You mustn't wince under it and try to draw up into something smaller than you are or become stiff under it in your effort to be statuesque. Be natural."

"She opened my eyes. My hands no longer quake when I feel somebody looking at them, nor do my feet shove back to cover if gaze falls upon them, nor do I try to act any role but one that naturally expresses my personality. The number of compliments I have made me think my reform decidedly worth while."

Suspected Socialist a Princess.

Princess Waldemar, the wife of the youngest brother of the present king of Denmark, is one of the most "advanced" and independent women in the kingdom. Her father was the duke of Chantres, and she was trained in the strict traditions of the proud Bourbon family, but her versatility and restlessness demanded an outlet, and she found hers principally in scientific pursuits of a wide range.

Among other things she is an amateur fireman, or firewoman, and honorary captain of the fire brigade of Copenhagen. Most of the large fires find her on hand early, clad in all-compassing gossamer and rubber boots.

Last, but, considering her rank, by no means least, she is more than suspected of being a socialist. The queen of Portugal is her cousin.

WOMEN'S SIZE IN HATS

So women have no size in hats, The fact a light instructive sheds On something else besides, and that's The adaptiveness of women's heads.

For woman's head is small, or big, Or middle-sized, or dark, or fair, According to her style of w—, I beg the ladies' pardon—hair.

Now when a tile the male-man buys— Say, Dick, or Harry, Tom, or Ned— He needs must buy it of the size To fit his own especial head.

But Chloe knows a better plan, Her headwear's size, what matters that, When at a pinch, she always can Make up her head to fit her hat?

BARE FIST TOURNAMENT FOR JERSEY GIRL'S HAND

Two Bloomfield Youths in Continual Battle to Possess Local Queen of Beauty Despite Bluecoats.

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., July 3.—The knights of old used to joyously kill each other for a smile from the Queen of Beauty, who graced the tournament or for her glove cast in the lists. Those young, modern knights, Frank Oppenheimer and Wallace Steringer, of Bloomfield, N. J., are pummeling each other half to death for a more suitable reward—the hand of their Queen of Beauty, the girl whom they both love. They have agreed that the vanquished will leave the field to the victor, so far as courting the girl is concerned. But the unchivalrous police will not let them battle to a finish. Oppenheimer and Steringer, each about nineteen years old, sturdy and plucky, fought with nature's weapons, bare fists, in Clinton road, Glen Ridge, early yesterday morning. Two hundred other knights and esquires watched the combat. The principals had met before, Sunday, in a grove in the upper section of Glen Ridge. They fought undecidedly until neither could stand, then parted to meet again yesterday.

Persons living near Clinton road were aroused by the spectators' shouts of encouragement: "Fight on, brave knights, for your fair!" or words to that effect. But when policemen reached the scene of battle, Oppenheimer, Steringer and everybody else learned of the bluecoats' coming, and disappeared. Both combatants were terribly punished, but they will meet again to fight a l'outrance.

CARE OF SILVERWARE

Always use an absolutely dry cloth in wiping silverware. Place a small lump of camphor in the chest in which silver or gold is kept, and it will do much toward preventing tarnish.

Silver that is not used every day is best kept rolled in soft tissue paper.

Do not allow rubber bands to be snapped about papers or boxes in which silver is kept, as sulphur in the rubber tarnishes the metals near it.

SALOME NOT IN IT WITH DANCER AT ATLANTIC CITY

On Top of Cafe Table This Woman Tries to Emulate Lady Godiva Until Waiters Hustle Her Away.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 3.—Reports of "high jinks" by some members of the National Association of Car Builders Saturday night resulted in the holding up of the license of a prominent beach-front hotel cafe by the City Council. There will be an investigation.

The story was that a coterie of wealthy delegates entered the cafe, accompanied by several women. One of the women offered to dance on a table in a costume like Lady Godiva's.

She was hoisted up and began to disrobe, amid screams and sudden departures of other women. Waiters dragged her down and hustled her into a cab. The management of the hotel declare that the incident never really reached a dangerous stage.

Ten other beach-front licenses were also held up for further consideration.

BEFORE AND AFTER

What on earth is wrong with Wilkins?
For a week he's been a wasp!
Peevish all the time and grouchy.
And his tongue is like a rasp.
What has happened to him lately
That has made him such a churl?
Why, he hasn't had a letter
From his own best girl.

What has happened now to Wilkins?
When the skies are leaden gray,
Still he wears a grin, and greets us;
"Isn't it a jolly day?"
Has the chap become unbalanced
By the office rush and whirl?
No; he's just received a letter
From his own best girl.

SOCIETY

Sophia Howland left her home in Vermont to meet Lewis Morrison Cutting, who had preceded her and established himself in business on this coast. They were married in San Francisco immediately upon her arrival. Cutting was born in Lowell, Mass. For the past fifty years he has been engaged in real estate and insurance business in Stockton.

Their four children, Lewis Howland Cutting, Mrs. Frank A. Stewart, Francis Cutting, with their families, and Miss Marie Cutting, of Stockton, were present at the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Cutting are spending the summer in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lane, formerly Miss Mabel Reed, have returned to their home in Los Angeles after a pleasant visit here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reed.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. Ruth Dean, of Los Angeles, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dick Law, of 1416 Brush street.

The Misses Maud and Grace Madden left Monday for Los Angeles, where they will visit a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Sturm and daughters, Gertrude and Veva, are spending the summer at McCray's in Cloverdale.

SHEEHAN-SHORB.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Sheehan and Bernardo Yorba Shorb took place last evening in St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco. The ceremony was performed by Vicar-General Prendergast.

The decorations in the church were altogether in white and green, tall St. Joseph lilies and palms being used in the chancel and on the pews. The bride, who was given away by her father, John Sheehan, wore a beautiful gown of white satin, made in the empire princess mode, with a court train and trimmed elaborately with point lace. She wore a long tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Irene Sheehan, the younger sister of the bride, was the maid of honor and wore pale blue chiffon over blue satin, trimmed with rose point lace. She wore a large white leghorn hat, trimmed with pale blue plumes, and carried a shower bouquet of La France roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Sheehan and Miss Ethel Shorb, the sisters respectively of the bride and groom, were gowned in pale pink marquisette made in the empire mode over pink satin and trimmed with Cluny lace. They wore pale pink Prince of Wales feathers in their hair and carried shower bouquets of La France roses.

The little flower girls, Ynezcita and Ruth White, were in white mull over pale pink, while the third flower girl, Monita Murtugh, wore white mull over pale blue. They carried pink roses. Mrs. J. de Harth Shorb, the groom's mother, was gowned in black velvet and lace. Mrs. Ynez Shorb White, the groom's sister, wore white chiffon satin and Valenciennes lace. Mrs. James King Steele, another sister of the groom, was gowned in white embroidered net over white satin. Alexander Sheehan was the best man. The ushers were Norbert Shorb, William Sheehan, Allan Green, Eldridge Green, William Falley and Lorraine Langstroff. After the ceremony, for which 1000 invitations had been issued, a reception, at which about 150 guests were present, was held at the Fairmont Hotel. The bride and groom received the congratulations and good wishes of their friends in the rose room, which was decorated for the occasion in La France roses and St. Joseph lilies. A buffet supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Shorb afterward left in their motor car for their honeymoon journey and will tour Southern California for the next month. On their return they will probably go to San Mateo to make their home.

SEARCHING FOR PAYING TELLER

Police Say Accused Placed $96.15 in Suit Case and Said Good-Bye.

NEW YORK, July 3.—Detectives throughout the United States are searching today for Chester B. Runyan, paying teller of the Windsor Trust Company, who, the directors allege, is missing with $96,315 in cash. The case is being handled by private detectives. George Young, a director of the trust company, confirms the reports of the defalcation, which the detectives say is one of the most remarkable on record.

FUNDS IN SUIT CASE.

Runyan is accused of having placed $96,315 in currency in a suit case last Saturday and departed after shaking hands with his associates. Runyan, it is said, did not even go to his apartment to bid good-bye to his wife, to whom he had been married for five years. Runyan is said to have taken all the cash available in the bank last Saturday. The directors, it is said, have made up all the loss of the defalcation.

Runyan was a man of exemplary habits so far as known and his conduct was such as not to arouse any suspicion. When the auditors went over his accounts on May 1 they were found to be all right.

HAY AND HOP CROPS LARGE THIS SEASON

WEST OAKLAND, June 3.—Railroad men who have been gathering statistics as to the probable hay crop to be handled by trains this season between the bayfields and the bay say it will be about 700 cars this season as against 600 last year, or about 15 per cent larger. They also say that the hopmen are already on the anxious seat as to labor, though it will not be till September 1 that picking will begin. The hopmen already are advertising for help and are placarding the bay cities and neighboring towns with advertisements detailing the pleasure to be derived from combining their vacation time with the work of picking hops. The prices on hops would not seem to warrant growers entertaining much expense in this direction, but they explain that the hops must be picked or the loss would be total. There are at present about 200 carloads of hops in the state.

TRAIN TRAFFIC LARGE THIS FOURTH OF JULY

WEST OAKLAND, July 3.—Never before in the history of this state have there been so many Independence Day celebrations arranged by cities and towns in California as for tomorrow. The travel on cars from one point to another will make train traffic enormous. The Southern Pacific Company has been compelled to decline orders for a large number of special trains owing to the extraordinary tax on its passenger equipment. Of the passenger cars due here last winter ten will be shipped from St. Louis on July 10, and subsequently several will be shipped each week until about seventy-five new coaches and baggage cars are received. One hundred and fifty more cars have been ordered in addition. However, these new cars will not be here, the company has decided that it would be better to take care of the immense travel on regular trains rather than run any special excursion trains.

An impromptu musical program was given, the parts being well rendered and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served late in the evening, after which the guests departed for their homes, thanking the Misses Pember and their party for the very pleasant evening spent. There were over forty young people present. The Misses Pember are very popular members of the church and Endeavor Society.

ACCUSE INTERPRETER OF OFFERING BRIBE

Dan Ach, a Chinese interpreter, was arrested yesterday at the Bureau of Immigration by Deputy United States Marshal Nolan on a Federal indictment, which charges him with offering a bribe to Percy E. Montgomery, immigrant inspector and Chinese inspector in the Bureau of Immigration on April 24th, in a recompense for allowing one Wong Yuk to land as the minor son of Wong Lee.

Dan Ach, who lives at 842 Alameda street, is said to have approached Montgomery and offered to make him a present. He would see to the landing of Wong Lee, and afterwards, when Wong Lee had been landed and passed by the immigration officials, Montgomery is alleged to have received the sum of $40 from Ach. Montgomery rejected the matter to Commissioner North, and steps were taken to secure the indictment of Ach. The same $40 will be used as evidence against Ach and at present it is in charge of United States District Attorney McKimley. Tracy advised Ach that he was innocent and that he had never bribed any one. He entreated the officers to release him as he had some business in this city which he wanted to look after.

BOSTON, July 3.—In an interview Professor Hugo Muensterberg, the Harvard psychologist, who has been attending the Haywood trial at Boise, Idaho, for the purpose of studying the mind of Harry Orchard, says he believes Orchard's confession to be thoroughly true.

Professor Muensterberg asserted that he was very much impressed with the dignity which characterized the trial, and it was his opinion that absolute justice was being accorded the defendant.

LAWLER WILL DECIDE IN GRAFT CASES ON MONDAY

Should Judge Dunne Fail to Pass Sentence on Mayor Schmitz Latter Says He Will Take Drastic Action.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Next Monday will mark an important epoch in the graft cases on trial before Judge Lawler. He announced today that at that time he would decide whether the various defendants are to be placed on trial or may have the indictments against them dismissed, as they have sought to do.

This list of defendants includes Mayor Schmitz, Abraham Ruef, Patrick Calhoun, Thornehill, Mullaly, Tiley L. Ford, William M. Abbott, John Martin, Eugene de Sabia and Frank Drum.

Judge Lawler said he would spend the entire day tomorrow working out the problem that has been laid before him, that he would conclude the preliminary hearing by taking up on Friday morning the motion of Martin, de Sabia, and Drum for the dismissal of indictments against them.

SCHMITZ WANTS SENTENCE Monday morning also will find

Mayor Schmitz in Judge Dunne's court asking a sentence on the charge of extortion, of which he has already been found guilty. Should Judge Dunne refuse to impose sentence at that time, the Mayor threatens drastic action to compel the court.

The cases of Martin, de Sabia, and Drum were called this morning in Judge Lawler's court. Attorney Barrett appeared for the defendants. The question of dismissing indictments in these cases will rest largely on the stipulations entered into with the District Attorney, that the evidence in the cases, the authorities and the arguments produced there, shall apply. The stipulations were not entered into this morning because of the absence of Attorney W. O'Gara said there was a question about the stipulation except in one sentence, and the matter will probably be settled on Friday morning in a short time.

The two cases in which Mayor Schmitz was to answer this morning in Judge Dunne's court on the charge of extortion were postponed until Tuesday, July 9.

MAYOR SCHMITZ ANNOUNCES HE WILL BE A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

THREATENS JUDGE WITH MANDAMUS

Says Spreckels Does Things for Self, Not City.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, who is awaiting sentence under conviction of extortion, in an interview last evening authorized the Associated Press to say that he will be a candidate for re-election to a fourth term, and that he has already begun the preliminary work of his campaign.

He declared that he was confident of winning at the polls, and that nothing would prevent him from running. He said the denial by the Appellate and Supreme Courts of the appeal he was preparing to take for a new trial of the charge on which he stands convicted by a jury in the Superior Court.

Another announcement made by the Mayor was that he would bring mandamus proceedings against Judge Dunne if his sentence was not forthcoming next Monday, as promised. Until judgment is passed the Mayor cannot carry his appeal to the higher courts, and until he has appealed he has little hope of gaining admittance to bail.

EXPECTS TO WIN.

"You may announce," said Schmitz, "that I will be a candidate for re-election this fall and that I expect to win. I have already begun my campaign in a preliminary way and shall carry it forward steadily from this time. I have no fear of the race. I am willing to make it without the aid of the Ruef organization, whose support I had in each of the three campaigns since 1901. Presumably that organization no longer exists, but its component parts, though scattered, are as much in existence as ever. It is up to me to gather them together and cement them into an organization of my own—a task I am prepared to undertake."

"Then you do not view your indictment on many charges by the grand jury and your conviction of extortion as necessarily the end of your political career? You do not feel that the people's confidence in you has been forfeited or destroyed?" the Mayor was asked.

NO FEAR OF COURTS.

"I do not," he emphatically replied. "To contrary—and I believe my information is accurate—I feel that it is weekly becoming plainer to the people of San Francisco that I am the object of a political instead of a moral prosecution, and have been notoriously deprived of a fair trial. I have from the very first maintained my innocence. I reaffirm it now with all the consciousness of truth. I was convicted by a jury of men who were biased against me, and two of whom were bribed and cajoled into voting guilty."

"I have no fear that the higher courts will sustain the verdict. Until they do, and the last resort the law affords for justice has been exhausted, I will fight my prosecutors every inch of the way. I ask no quarter. I want no mercy. I demand justice. I could have avoided all but the most trifling prosecution by merely throwing up my hands and stepping down and out. Had I been guilty that is what I would logically have done. But I was innocent, and knowing full well what a fight would mean I chose to fight."

PROSPERITY IS ISSUE.

"The issues on which the fall campaign will be fought are prosperity and corruption. I make that statement now and you may call it prophecy if you like. Nominations as mere party selections will not cut the figure they cut in the past. Industrial conditions, past, present and future, are the center around which the political fight will be waged in November. Speeches won't win. Glad handing won't win. Chicanery won't carry the polls. It's plain performance that will decide."

"Mr. Spreckels and Mr. Phelan and a few others must spend at least $20,000,000 to restore property of theirs that was destroyed by the earthquake and fire and rehabilitate their vast interests."

"If they can depress local wages 10 per cent they will save $2,000,000. If they can cut down the local wage scale a third that will mean $7,000,000. I don't think it is the game worth fighting for? Doesn't it, in the minds of these men, justify them in using any weapons they can find, or fashion? This, in part, is why they are determined to discredit and oust a labor union administration and place themselves in complete control."

GAME IS LONG.

"Cards are with them now, but the game is long and they will fall. Nobody knows better than I. In my third year of San Francisco that Rudolph Spreckels never did anything for the city of his birth, except as a means of doing something for himself."

"This will come home to him in November. Good wages make full pay and fat tills. I can say to the working people and the merchants and shopkeepers of San Francisco: This city has been more prosperous under my mayorship than it ever was before. I have a very great deal more to show you. You prospered more in my first administration than you had prospered before. In my second term things were still better. In my third year of San Francisco that Rudolph Spreckels never did anything for the city of his birth, except as a means of doing something for himself."

"I never let her," said Riley, a husky, well-looking individual, when he was placed upon the stand. "I just gave her a shove."

However he pleaded guilty to the charge of battery and Judge Mortimer Smith held him for sentence on July 5.

TO CUT OFF CITY SEWER FROM HOMES ON 100 ACRES

Public Works Board Decides People Outside of Oakland Must Pay for Conveniences or Do Without.

"Outside sewer connections" provoked considerable discussion this morning at the meeting of the Board of Public Works.

The following Council resolution brought the matter up: "That the Board of Public Works be and is hereby authorized and requested to instruct the Superintendent of Streets to disconnect the sewer in Fifty-ninth street, and outside the city limits, and which said sewer connects with Fifty-ninth street sewer, within the city boundary line."

MAYOR OBJECTS.

When the resolution was read City Engineer F. C. Turner immediately moved that the sewer be disconnected. Mayor Mott demurred. The Mayor suggested a "final policy" be adopted in the matter.

The City Engineer was insistent, however, and gave several reasons why his motion should prevail.

The trouble arises over the fact that despite a warning outside residents of that portion of the district in question are connecting with the city sewer and paying not a farthing for the convenience. City Engineer Turner stated that the City Attorney, who was absent from the meeting today, had suggested that if these people continue to connect and enjoy sewer privileges that they would build up certain legal rights and the municipality would not be able later to jar them loose.

LENIENCY ADVISED.

Mayor Mott, however, stated that leniency, in his opinion, should be shown, as the people of the district were prospective citizens of Oakland and as such they would not treat them liberally. The Mayor suggested that the people be asked to pay a certain sum. City Engineer Turner replied that there was no organized body there to deal with and it was a case of every-body's business is nobody's business.

The matter was going into its length but the final result was that the board instructed the superintendent of streets to disconnect the sewer in conformity with the resolution from the Council.

The street superintendent, however, will give the people a chance before breaking the connection. It was understood that he will notify a prominent real estate firm interested in the district that the firm see the property owners and propose that they agree to pay a tax of 1-2 cent per square foot. The people are given a few days grace in which to answer.

About 100 acres of territory are affected.

SCORE HURT WHEN STEEL RAILS WRECK SPEEDING CAR

Collision Drives Heavy Irons Among Passengers, Mangling and Tossing Them in Heaps About Vehicle.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—A dozen people were seriously injured and as many more slightly hurt in a collision between a Washington bound trolley and two carsloads of rails on the Washington, Arlington & Falls Church Electric Railway at 9:25 o'clock this morning.

The passenger car left the West End station at 8 o'clock loaded with employees in the government departments in Washington. It was delayed at Ashdale station for a few minutes and then followed a car to Clarendon, which was bound for the Aqueduct Bridge. At Spruce station there were two flat cars loaded with steel rails and these were being taken to West End station. A motor car was pushing these flat cars and when one car had passed the switch, the rail-laden train immediately started without waiting for the regular Washington car. They came together south of Spruce street station, near Alexandria courthouse.

TELESCOPES CAR.

The rails upon the forward car extended several feet beyond the trucks and when the crash occurred these penetrated the passenger car, almost completely telescoping it.

One rail passed entirely through the abdomen of Motorman William Mock and one passenger had both legs severed. There were many women in the car and several of these were badly injured.

The passenger car was proceeding down grade and it is admitted by the conductor that it was running at the rate of about 45 miles an hour in an effort to make up some of the lost time. Twelve of the injured passengers were taken to Georgetown Hospital and the less injured were treated near the scene of the wreck.

The scene of the accident is near Ballston, Va., which is at the Virginia bridge, the Aqueduct Bridge spanning the Potomac river, between that point and Georgetown, or West Washington.

WIFE ASKS FOR SUPPORT, GETS SEVERE BEATING

Declaring that every time she remonstrated with her husband for his failure to go to work and contribute something toward the support of his family she received a severe beating at his hands, Della Riley last evening caused the arrest of her belated husband and charged him with battery. Mrs. Riley says that yesterday morning Riley appeared at their home at 1471 Pacific street much the worse for liquor. Refusing to listen to her, he began to beat her and she fled to her parents' home. She begged him to turn over a new leaf and earn some money to buy the family supplies. But her judgment was bad, for she asserted that he had been drinking and she could Riley saw into a towering rage and struck her repeatedly. She said this morning Mrs. Riley said she has a home full of children who dependent entirely upon her earnings for their daily bread. Her husband spends all of his time in idleness, despairing of influencing him by personal appeal, she decided to see whether the city courts might persuade him to mend his ways. "I never hit her," said Riley, a husky, well-looking individual, when he was placed upon the stand. "I just gave her a shove."

However he pleaded guilty to the charge of battery and Judge Mortimer Smith held him for sentence on July 5.

"You may announce," says Schmitz in his statement, "that I will be a candidate for re-election this fall and that I expect to win. I have already begun my campaign in a preliminary way and shall carry it forward steadily from this time. I have no fear of the race. I am willing to make it without the aid of the Ruef organization, whose support I had in each of the three campaigns since 1901. Presumably that organization no longer exists, but its component parts, though scattered, are as much in existence as ever. It is up to me to gather them together and cement them into an organization of my own—a task I am prepared to undertake."

They will vote on their own figures. I am willing to rely on that. I ask no more than that."

The mayor was asked: "How do you stand now with the unions and with the union people?" He said:

"If my information is correct, and I am confident it is, I have lost no allegiance there. In 1901 I was elected by 21,000 votes, in 1903 by 26,000 and the last time by 42,000. Henderson Will Not Join Boston

STOCKTON, July 3.—Ben Henderson, the crack pitcher of the Stockton State League club is not going to join the Boston Nationals after all. Henderson declares that he is disgusted with the treatment that McCredie has given him in this matter. According to Henderson he was to get a cut of any money that Boston might pay to Portland in exchange for him. Henderson alleges that McCredie told him recently that he was to get three players in exchange for him. Henderson is very sore at the way McCredie has treated him, and he declares that so far as he is concerned the Boston trade is all off, and that he will remain with Stockton for the rest of the season. If necessary he says he will drop baseball and go into some other business, but he declares that he will not stand for any of McCredie's rough stuff.

San Pablo Nine Beats the Duponts

SAN PABLO, July 3.—The Dupont Powder baseball nine journeyed to San Pablo last Sunday to play a return game with the San Pablos. They were determined to even up for their former defeat, but though they showed marked improvement in their play they were not quite able to turn the trick. Both Pyne and Stanley were touched up lively, Stanley getting his in the opening innings and Pyne coming to grief in the closing frames.
 The Pablos made a tough up-hill fight, the score being 7 to 1 against them in the sixth inning. The feature of the game was the dinging and bunting of Shortstop Robinson of the San Pablos. This clever player not only gathered in everything that came his way, but also made two singles, a double and a triple in five times at the bat.
 The San Pablos would like to play some team on the Fourth, as their trip to San Ramon had to be called off on account of lack of train facilities in leaving San Ramon. Below is the score:
 Runs, Hits, Batters—For San Pablo, Stanley and O'Neill, Duponts, Pyne and Sistierna. Struck out by Stanley 8, by Pyne 5.
 For games address W. S. Clyma, San Pablo.

FEDERAL AUTHORITIES AFTER SMELTER TRUST

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The great smelter corporation headed by Simon Guggenheim, Senator-elect from Colorado, has fallen under the ban of the federal authorities, and trust bailing experts are conducting an investigation to determine whether it is not a combination in violation of law. A suit for dissolution of the corporation, and possibly criminal proceedings based on the evidence accumulated, is considered likely.
 The smelter investigation which was personally ordered by President Roosevelt, has proceeded secretly, and efforts have been made to prevent the American smelting and refining company, the parent corporation, from discovering that it is placed on the list of corporations. The chief investigation includes not only violations of the anti-trust law, but also the relationship sustained by the smelter combine toward the railroads which traverse the country in which smelting ores originate.

RAILWAY CANCELS RATES.

RENO, Nev., July 3.—The Virginia and Truckee Railroad has recalled its rate schedules which had been prepared to conform to the new rate law passed by the state legislature, and cancelled the new figures prepared and handed to agents along the line. The management has decided to await the action of the court in the proceedings recently started by the Southern Pacific, San Pedro and Los Angeles, Nevada, California and Nevada Northern railroads through their attorneys, Herrin, Dunn and Kelley, in their recent visit to Carson.

WELL-KNOWN POWDER INVENTOR PASSES AWAY

AKRON, Ohio, July 3.—Hiram J. Ayers, the inventor of giant powder, died here yesterday, aged eighty-four years. He manufactured giant powder here in the 40's, drying it on the roof of his factory. Ayers was an interested eastern man and they manufactured the explosive extensively at Ogden, Utah, and in California and at other points. Death was due to old age.

"And now," remarks Bill Devereaux.

"It is said that the government will investigate the shoe trust. Is this the last?" "Yes, this is awl," says Bill.

LONG LIVE THE KING!

Is the popular cry throughout European countries, while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long Live the New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Miss Julia Ryder Paine, of New York, says, "It never fails to give immediate relief and quickly cures a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the nation of this country. New Discovery cures all weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed, and for coughs and colds it is the proven, reliable remedy of Osgood Bros., druggists. 50c and $1.00. AND DO CURE

WE have made a specialty of curing the cases that have PUZZLED and BAFLED the so-called specialists who are today fooling but not CURING THE PUBLIC. We make the perfect cures that we do because we have the most modern, the most scientific methods known. The members of the faculty are all of the HIGHEST STANDING and well and favorably known to the people of Oakland. We have combined the skill, education, grand equipment and honest purpose with great experience, and consequently the results we achieve are NOT TO BE QUESTIONED FOR AN INSTANT. When such men as we are enabled to offer you can be had, WHY RISK? Let the hands of unqualified quacks who publish photographs of non-existent men, and who start museums to scare weak men to death? With the methods of people of this type we have no sympathy whatever. STRICT HONESTY AND UNSURPASSED SKILL are indicative of our legitimate methods.

THE DUST PROBLEM SOLVED BY AN OAKLAND DEVICE

Test of the Sanitary Street-Sweeping Machine Proves it to Be a Complete Success.

A practical working test of the sanitary street sweeping machine, introduced by Charles H. Butler, was given on Clay street this morning in the presence of Mayor Mott, Dr. Williams, president of the Board of Health, Councilman Meese and some gentlemen from San Francisco interested in street cleaning.

The test was an unqualified success from every point of view. The machine worked splendidly, and demonstrated that it will do all that is claimed for it, sweeping the street as clean as a floor without raising any dust whatever. It does the work better than can be done by hand sweeping, and removes all the fine dust, which has heretofore defied both mechanical invention and hand work.

This machine is the only device ever invented that will sweep the streets perfectly clean when they are dry and collect all the dust for removal. It can be operated at any time of the day without interference with traffic. It neither creates nor raises dust. It sweeps a strip eight feet wide as fast as horses can walk, and collects all loose material within a few inches of the curb. It takes up the fine material which finds lodgment along the railway tracks and rises in clouds with the passage of every car.

Mayor Mott and Dr. Williams were delighted with the performance of the machine. The Mayor said it had undoubtedly solved the dust problem. Dr. Williams said it was a great aid to health and sanitation, as it eliminated the danger of infection from germs and bacteria carried in dust. As soon as another machine now nearing completion is ready for operation a proposition will be submitted for putting the device into regular use on the streets of Oakland. It will prove a great boon to the public if adopted.

The sanitary street sweeping machine was patented in December, 1906, and has been perfected by the addition of patented improvements. No attempt has been made to put it in general use because the patterns were destroyed in the San Francisco fire and the iron workers' strike greatly delayed construction. However, a number of machines will be constructed soon. It is planned to place them in operation in all the large cities.

The machine sweeps entirely under cover, collecting all the loose material, including the fine dust, in an enclosed van, from which it is taken in boxes easily handled. Its use will mean a permanent ridance from the dust nuisance, which is a sore aggravation on windy days, and is the terror of merchants dealing in fine fabrics. The American patents are owned by the Sanitary Street Sweeping Company, an Oakland corporation, which has also secured a number of foreign patents.

GEORGE W. REED SCORED VICTORY

Well-Known Attorney Is Presented With Handsome Punch Bowl.

In commemoration for the services so kindly rendered the new deputy county officials appointed under the new county government act, which services won for them their salaries and obtained a ruling that made their positions upheld by the Superior Court, Attorney George W. Reed has been presented with a cut-glass punch bowl and berry service by these officials.

The new law, providing for thirty additional employees in public offices in Alameda county, was passed by the last Legislature. A legal question arose as to whether or not the law could become operative during the tenure of incumbents in office when the act was passed, as the State Constitution provides that the compensation of a public officer shall not be increased during the term for which he is elected.

To test the constitutionality of the new law, Attorney George W. Reed was retained to institute legal proceedings. A mandamus action was begun against County Auditor George S. Place to compel him to draw a warrant for the salary of one of the deputies appointed under the new law.

The case came up for trial before Judge Owens in an able manner. Attorney Reed presented the legal features involved and obtained a decision upholding the validity of the new law. Thirty deputies are now holding positions and drawing salaries as a result of the decision.

Feeling that the cause he had espoused was a just one, Attorney Reed declined to accept an honorarium for his services. The new deputies therefore appointed a committee to select a suitable gift to present to Attorney Reed in appreciation of his kindness.

The gift selected consisted of an elegant cut-glass punch bowl with a dozen glasses, silver tray and jule, together with a handsome berry service of cut glass. The presentation to Mr. Reed was informal. In return, Mr. Reed addressed a letter of acknowledgment and thanks to the newly appointed deputies.

Under the new law, the following officers were allowed additional deputies: County Clerk, County Assessor, District Attorney, Tax Collector, Superintendent of Schools, Treasurer, Auditor, Recorder and Sheriff.

DIRIGO LODGE HOLDS ITS ANNUAL BANQUET

The banquet room of the Pythian Hall was crowded to its capacity last night with members of the order, in honor of the sixth anniversary of the organization of Dirigo Lodge.

Many speakers of local prominence as well as officers of the Grand Lodge were present, among them being Hon. George C. Pardee, Mayor Frank K. Mott, Judges Samuels and Quinn, Robert F. Burns, J. R. Schaffner, E. L. Bair, Dr. Derrick and many others. Mayor Mott made a characteristic and eloquent speech on the subject nearest his heart, namely "The City of Oakland." The ex-governor's address was along lines of fraternalism. Free from the exactions of political subjects, Mr. Pardee made an eloquent address to the higher and noble qualities of manhood. Col. Robert F. Burns, past grand chancellor of the domain of California, fully sustained his reputation as a master orator and held the audience spellbound in his tribute to "Our Absent Brothers."

Dirigo Lodge now has a membership of three hundred and twenty-three, has a cash balance of over six thousand dollars besides stock in the Pythian Hall Association. It has paid out in sick benefits during the six years of its existence, over seven thousand dollars. This lodge numbers among its members some of the most prominent men in the state of California. Hon. George C. Pardee, Mayor Mott, several judges and noted lawyers being on its roster. It is the second lodge in size in California, and at the present rate of growth, will soon be the largest.

EXAMINATION FOR CLERKS AND CARRIERS

An examination will be held on July 30 in San Francisco for clerks and carriers in the Oakland and San Francisco postoffices. Application blanks and book of instructions can be obtained at room 21, money order division, Oakland postoffice.

Under an act of Congress passed at the last session, postoffice clerks and carriers' positions are more desirable than formerly. The first year the pay is $600, second year $620, third year $640, fourth year $660, fifth year $680. In later years the increase is not so rapid, but depends on efficiency and vacancies in the higher classes. Salaries run up to above $2000 per annum. After one year's service employees are granted fifteen days annual leave of absence, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, for which they receive pay.

RETURNS FROM PLEASANT TRIP

Dr. D. D. Crowley Back From Meet of American Medical Association.

Dr. D. D. Crowley returned last night from a two months' trip to the East. During his absence he attended the annual meeting of the American Medical Association at Atlantic City, New Jersey, where he met leading physicians from all sections of the United States and Canada. He also visited New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Rochester, Minnesota, where he examined hospital methods and attended clinics.

Dr. Crowley said he enjoyed his trip immensely. His personal appearance proves his assertion, for he returns in the pink of physical condition. He says about thirty physicians from California attended the meeting at Atlantic City, a larger proportion than attended from any other section of the country. He gathered some new ideas regarding hospital practice and surgery, but is of the opinion that the standard of professional skill and learning is as high in California as anywhere, though he says medical men always have something to learn from each other.

BIG BUSINESS IN LAST YEAR

Customs Receipts and Duties on Foreign Mail Increases at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Acting Customs Collector William B. Hamilton reports a flattering increase in customs business during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1907.

The total receipts were $10,147,010, as against $7,443,196 for the year ended June 30, 1906. The number of entries to June 30, 1907, was 33,426 against 31,972 for the preceding year.

The customs bureau at the postoffice for the collection of duties on mail matter from foreign countries collected $13,872 for 1907 as against $16,601 for 1906. The collections for the past fiscal year are the largest since 1883.

JOSEPH KOFORD MAY, RECITE BIG ADDRESS

BERKELEY, July 3.—W. J. Seaborn, deputy city clerk, will go with a party of twenty-five friends tomorrow to Redwood Canyon to join in an old-fashioned Fourth of July picnic. The party will leave Berkeley at 8:30 o'clock and Seaborn says he is slated to carry the ice cream freezer or the "jollification water." The committee having the affair in hand is trying to have Joe Koford read the Declaration of Independence, and recite Patrick Henry's address, and Koford is giving the invitation careful consideration. With plenty to eat, a jolly crowd, fireworks galore there will be the proper sport on tap.

CONFESSES MURDER BUT GAINS LIBERTY

NEW YORK, July 3.—After a vivid investigation the Queen county Grand Jury has refused to indict Henry Becker for the murder of fifteen-year-old Amelia Bradford of Framingham, Mass., who was strangled in this morning and discharged.

Cloning aside all other clues, the police settled on Becker as the perpetrator of the murder. He is about 22 years of age and did odd jobs for a livelihood in the neighborhood where the girl was strangled while picking dandelions.

The Grand Jury believed that Becker was scared into making his confession.

CLAIM MAN ISSUED MANY BOGUS CHECKS

ALAMEDA, July 3.—The examination of Abe Haif for this morning before Judge Johnson, was continued until Friday morning at 9 o'clock. Haif is accused of obtaining money under false pretenses through the issuing of several worthless checks. One of his acts was the buying of a $50 automobile lamp from the George C. Moore Company of Oakland, which he subsequently sold to an Oakland automobile dealer for $11. He paid the Moore Company with a worthless check.

FIGHTS WITH S. P. EMPLOYEES

Gateman at Mole and J. A. Benson Have Encounter—Later May Sue.

John A. Benson had an encounter with a Southern Pacific depot master at Oakland last night, got the worst of the encounter and was compelled to pass an hour and a half in jail, later being released on $35 bail, for all of which he threatens to sue the railroad company for damages. Benson is known to the public chiefly through the prosecution of the United States government for his alleged participation in land frauds.

Benson states that he had just returned from San Ramon. He had passed through the outer gate at the mole and his ticket had been taken up. As he had had no money, he was told to take his apron, the gate was slammed in his face. He says that he remonstrated with the attendant and was told to take his apron, instead of removing his difficulties, only increased them.

MAY SUE COMPANY.

He declares that he presented his case to that official after which interperate words were exchanged. He says the depot master ordered him out of his office and that he grasped him by the throat, but that before he (Benson) could do so he was thrown to the ground and ran in and threw him out of the office. He further avers that his arm, legs and face were lacerated in the fall.

He had no sooner arisen, he says, than State Policeman B. Duffy clapped a pair of handcuffs on his wrists and took him to the county jail, where he was charged with using vulgar language and battery. He remained in the jail three hours for one hour and thirty minutes when his attorney J. C. Drew, arrived and obtained his release.

Benson characterizes the whole affair as an outrage and intimates that he will bring an action in the courts against the Southern Pacific.

EXTRA STAMPS FOR SPECIAL DELIVERIES

There went into effect on July 1 a change in the United States postal law according to an act passed by the last Congress whereby it was provided that from and after July 1, 1907, when in addition to the stamps required to transfer any letter or package of mail matter through the mails there shall be attached to the envelope or covering ten cents' worth of ordinary stamps of any denomination with the words "special delivery" or their equivalent written or printed on the envelope or covering, under such regulation as the Postmaster General may prescribe, the said package shall be handled, transmitted and delivered in all respects as though it bore a regulation "special delivery" stamp.

MUSEUM SHOWS HOW ABORIGINES LIVED

BERKELEY, July 3.—The secretary of the department of anthropology, Dr. A. L. Kroeber, has announced some interesting facts regarding the ethnological museum of the university, situated at the Affiliated Colleges in San Francisco. The museum contains the largest collection of the aboriginal life of California, and the most carefully made collection of remains of civilizations of the ancient Incas of Peru. The original antiquities from Greece and Rome and the collections from the Aztecs and Incas in the Pacific Islands, the Philippines, etc., are also unusually interesting and valuable. The museum is open to the general public on Thursdays, excepting legal holidays, from 2 to 4. Summer session students are given a special invitation to visit this interesting department of the university.

DAVIS AT HOME.

ALAMEDA, July 3.—Percy Davis, reported from San Francisco as missing, is at his home here on Pearl street. A San Francisco dispatch said that Davis had been missing since June 26, and that the San Francisco police had been trying to locate him.
